A WEDDING OF HOME INTEREST AT

of Miss Carmen Atocha Davis, eldest daughter of Brig. Gen. George W. Davis, lately military governor of Porto Rico, and Mr. Philip Surden Mumford of a wellknown San Juan banking firm, which took place at San Juan April 30, have been received here, where both the bride and her family have a large acquaintance in resident circles. The ceremony took place at high noon in the Pink Palace, Bishop Blenk, the Catholic bishop of Porto Rico, officiating. The bride's eldest sister, Miss Elisa Davis, acted as maid of honor and Miss Zoe Davis, Miss Pearson and Miss Annen as bridesmaids. Mr. Norman Mumford, brother of the groom, was best man, and Mr. Angel of Aguirre, Mr. Marvin and

Mr. Rogers acted as ushers. The bride, who is a handsome and sparkling brunette, much loved and admired for her gracious manners and captivating conversational powers, wore white satin elab-orately trimmed with point lace. She wore a tulle veil held in place with a spray of real orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of the same flowers. The maid of honor and bridesmaids were tasteful gowns of white adorned with lace and pink sashes. In the absence of Gen. Davis, who is in the Philippines, Mrs. Davis gave away the

The wedding reception from 1 to 3 o'clock p.m. at the Davis mansion was largely attended, nearly all of the officials of the civil government and the military and naval officers stationed in San Juan uniting with the brilliant assemblage, who showered congratulations upon the happy bride and groom. The reception room and the entire mansion were beautifully decorated, nating manner. No charge is made at the the color tones being green and white.

The Porto Rican Regimental Band, sta-tloned in the ante room, enlivened the oc-casion with well selected music. Refreshments were served in the dining room on a bountiful scale. The wedding presents displayed in a room adjacent to the main re-ception hall were numerous, costly and beautiful, and were greatly admired.

The couple left for an extended tour in the states on the steamer Ponce, which left San Juan for New York at 5 p.m. on the day of the wedding. The steamer was decorated with all of her display flags in their honor. A large assemblage crowded the pler to wave the happy pair adieus, while the band discoursed appropriate music. Promptly on time the whistle blew and the Ponce, with the couple and numerous passemble. Ponce, with the couple and numerous passengers for the north, steamed majestically out of the beautiful harbor of San Juan. Scarcely had she rounded Morro Castle, and before she had lost sight of the city, the magnificent pier from which the steamer had departed was a mass of flames, and in an incredibly snort time the structure had fallen in and was totally destroyed, with thousands of bags of sugar and other valuable freight. It is believed that the valuable freight. It is believed that the fire was the work of an incendiary.

The opening of the opera season in London last night was brilliant enough so far as the attendance of most of the notables was concerned, but the universal black worn seemed to exert a depressing influence. Lady Curzon of Kedleston, who is just back in London, had a charming ovation from her friends, who crowded about her box. She was as handsome as ever, and her black gown was relieved by her spiendid jewels-diamonds and emeralds. Mrs. John Mackay's jewels were the finest displayed. She also wore black.

Mrs. John C. Fremont was a guest Sunday night at "Wootton." Mr. and Mrs. George W. Childs Drexel's country place near Philadelphia, at the dinner given for Miss Harjes of Paris.

NEW ESTABLISHMENT.

Hecht & Co. to Open Department Store in New York. Messrs, Hecht & Co. of this city have completed plans for opening a department store in New York city, which, they claim, will rank with the largest and best stores of the kind in the country. The leading retail thoroughfare, 6th avenue, has been selected for the location, the building, which is now being thoroughly remodeled, consisting of five stories, exclusive of the basement, and having a modern and most imposing iron front.

The building is being fitted with hardwood fixtures throughout, and will be fur-nished with every modern business facility. The firm of Hecht & Co. already has five stores in Baltimore besides the establishment in this city. The New York branch will give largely increased facilities.

Farewell, dear mother, thou art gone,
Thy home is in the skies,
We cannot see thy starry crown
With our weak earthly gres.
But through our Savior's dying love,
Our sins on earth forgiven,
We'll meet thee in thy home above
And dwell with thee in heaven.
